LIBRARY CODE OF BEHAVIOR

The OLF students, faculty, and staff share the responsibility of maintaining an environment which allows the library to serve the needs of all. Patrons are expected to maintain a quiet and courteous atmosphere and to respect the rules of the school, as well as those specifically to the library. Borrowing books from the library is a privilege. When a student checks out a book, he/she is expected to be responsible for returning it in good condition.

- Be respectful of the librarians, patrons and the library space.
- Be responsible for your actions.
- Follow directions the first time given.
- Whisper.
- Pick up after yourself and tuck in your chair.
- Take care of library books.
- Place books and materials where they belong.
- Return/renew all books on time.

LIBRARY POLICIES

LOAN PERIOD, RENEWAL LIMITS, & HOLDS

Loan Period - 2 weeks

- Students coming to regularly scheduled library visits MUST bring their books on their library day to be renewed, returned or exchanged.
- Jr High students come in when needed to return, renew, and exchange their library book(s). Jr High students are responsible for keeping track of their loan periods and checked out books by utilizing their Destiny Discover accounts.

Renewal Limits

- Books can be renewed up to 2 times if not finished by the date they are due back in the library.
- After 2 renewals, the librarian and librarian assistant have the right to block the renewal of that book and have the student return it.

Placing Holds

- If a book is unavailable because it's already checked-out, the item can be placed on hold.
- The student's teacher will be notified when the item becomes available and the student may come to check it out.
- Grades 3-8 can place holds through their Destiny Discover accounts or through the librarian or librarian assistant.

LIBRARY POLICIES

OVERDUE, MISSING, DAMAGED BOOKS

Overdue Books

- There are no $ fines for overdue books.
- Students will not be allowed to checkout than 2 items at any time, including the missing item, unless a signed note is turned in to the library.
- A parent's signed overdue notice (given by the library) expressing knowledge of the missing book must be returned to the library for student checkout privileges to be restored.
- If the book is not found & returned to the library by April/May, lost notices will be sent out and student FACTS accounts will be charged the total replacement cost of the book before the end of school.

Damaged Books

- Students are responsible for damages to library books which occur during the time it is checked out to them whether or not they actually caused the damage themselves.
- Such damage includes water/liquid damage, marking or drawing on the pages, torn and/or torn out pages, teeth marks, broken covers/spines, and any other damage caused while the book is checked out to the student.
- The full replacement cost will be charged promptly to the student's FACTS account for all books that are damaged beyond repair.
